Never Forget

The National Fallen Firefighters Foundation is pleased to announce the Spokane 9/11 Memorial Stairclimb. The event will be held on Sunday September 11th at the Bank of America (BOA) Financial Center in downtown Spokane Washington and will pay tribute to the 343 firefighters who died on 9/11/01

Event Details:

Date Sunday, September 11, 2011

Time Ceremonies begin at 9am

- * Participants will climb flights of stairs inside the BOA Financial Center to equal 110 flights - the same number as the World Trade Center and Towers.
- * Each climber will carry the photograph of a climber that lost his life on September 11th.
- * This is not a timed event or a race - it's a way for firefighters to honor and remember their comrades.
- * All proceeds from the Spokane 9/11 Memorial Stairclimb will benefit the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation, which leads a nationwide effort to remember America's fallen firefighters and provides resources to assist those families who have lost a loved one in the line of duty.
- * Firefighters may climb in turnout gear or shorts and t-shirts (no SCBA's or tools)
- * Firefighters will start and finish the 110 flights together in teams of 3-4; if unable to register with a team you will be assigned one.

Registration $25

(Event is for firefighters only)

OPEN: Friday, July 1st

CLOSES: Saturday, August 18
